

ALCOHOL CAUSES VIOLENCE CONFERENCE

A Wellington Conference for Aucklanders – WITHOUT LEAVING TOWN!

Alcohol Healthwatch, together with the Auckland Community Action on Youth and Drugs (CAYAD team) and with the support of ALAC, is pleased to invite you to a live broadcast link up with the 'Alcohol Causes Violence' Conference being held in Wellington on 23rd March 2010.

The conference organisers, Alcohol Action NZ, believe that alcohol is a “law and order issue” that needs a seismic shift in national thinking. The conference brings together those concerned with law and order and those concerned with public health. Speakers include - NZ Police commissioner Howard Broad, Judge Andrew Becroft – Principal Youth Court Judge of NZ, Professor Doug Sellman – Director, National Addiction Centre, University of Otago, Christchurch and many more.

A programme of the day PLUS a list of other viewing options in the region is available from www.alcoholaction.co.nz

Come and be part of this historic event!

DATE: Tuesday 23rd March 2010

TIME: 8.30am – 5.00pm

VENUE: Waipuna Conference Centre, Waipuna Road,
Mt Wellington (Walking distance from Sylvia Park)

REGISTER: suzanne@ahw.org.nz or ph: 09 520 7036

RSVP is ESSENTIAL for this FREE event (includes lunch)